

Arizona South Asians For Safe Families
(ASAFSF, a non-profit, 501 (c) (3) organization)

presents its premiere conference

Shakti – The Power In Empowerment

Saturday, April 18, 2009, 8:30 AM – 4:30 PM

Fiesta Inn Resort & Conference Center

2100 S Priest Dr., Tempe, AZ 85282

Register Early before April 1, 2009!

ASAFSF
Domestic Violence –
It's everyone's business

Chief Guest

Terry Goddard

Attorney General, State of Arizona

Keynote Speaker

Urmi Basu

Executive Director, New Light, Kolkata, India

Recipient of the "Unsung Heroes of Compassion Award," presented by His Holiness the Dalai Lama

Featured Speakers

Margaret Abraham

Professor of Sociology, Hofstra University
Volunteer, Sakhi for South Asian Women

Maha B. Alkhateeb

Co-Director, Peaceful Families Project,
Washington D.C.

Firoza Chic Dabby

Director, Asian and Pacific Islander Institute on Domestic Violence, San Francisco
Advisor, ASAFSF

Maneesha Kelkar

Executive Director, Manavi Inc., New Jersey

Early Registration before 4/1/2009: $50 per person; $60 after 4/1/2009 (☺) Lunch included (☺)

To register, contact us at the email or phone number listed below

ALL PROCEEDS WILL BENEFIT ARIZONA SOUTH ASIANS FOR SAFE FAMILIES

ASAFSF is a non-profit, support services organization for South Asian victims of Domestic Violence

Donations to ASAFSF are tax-exempt and greatly appreciated

Email: asafsf@gmail.com or info@asafsf.org ; website: <http://www.asafsf.org>

Toll free telephone number: 1-877-SAFE-711 or 1-877-723-3711

P.O.Box 2748, Scottsdale, AZ 85252-2748